

GENERAL POLICY	The mission of the California Health Benefit Exchange/Covered California (Exchange/CC) is to ensure that consumers have good health insurance products that will provide high-quality care when they need it. Exchange/CC educates, trains, and certifies independent insurance agents to provide consumers with personalized guidance to better support them in navigating the many plans and options available on the California Health Benefit Exchange. It is the goal of Exchange/CC to make sure consumers are well-informed so they can choose the best product for them It is the policy of Exchange/CC to require Exchange/CC-certified agents to provide full disclosure about the benefits and advantages of the comprehensive plans found on CoveredCA.com and to compare those benefits and advantages to some of the features of Health Care Sharing Ministry plans. This policy applies to all individuals licensed by the California Department of Insurance (CDI) who are additionally certified by the Exchange/CC to sell Qualified Health Plan policies.
LEGAL AUTHORITY	Amendment to the Agency Agreement
DEFINITIONS	Health Care Sharing Ministry A Health Care Sharing Ministry is a voluntary association in which members who share moral or religious values agree to pay the medical costs of other enrolled members. These organizations are not insurance companies, and coverage and benefits are administered by membership organizations that are unregulated by the State of California, are not certified by Covered California, and are not required to meet financial solvency requirements to ensure there is enough funding to pay claims. Members can refuse to pay for some members’ medical costs, including those costs deemed non-compliant with the Sharing Ministry’s values. Health Care Sharing Ministry products do not meet the minimum essential benefits required by the Affordable Care Act.

	Certified Insurance Agent A Certified Insurance Agent (CIA) is individual who maintains an active license with the California Department of Insurance to sell health insurance products in the State of California, who is additionally certified and trained by Exchange/CC to sell Qualified Health Plan products on-exchange.
CONSEQUENCES	Failure to comply with the responsibilities of this policy, including the reasonable access provision, will result in a written warning from Exchange/CC. Additional noncompliance will be evaluated by Exchange/CC who will, in its sole discretion, weigh the totality of circumstances in the individual Certified Insurance Agent’s behavior and noncompliance. Exchange/CC may take disciplinary action, up to and including CIA decertification to prevent writing new on-exchange business.
RESPONSIBILITY	Responsibilities of Exchange/Covered California <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exchange/CC shall require Certified Insurance Agents (CIAs) to obtain a Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Form from each consumer who purchases a Health Care Sharing Ministry product. • Exchange/CC shall require CIAs to maintain Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Forms for up to three (3) years. • Exchange/CC shall conduct, at random, requests for access to CIA Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Form records. • Exchange/CC shall modify the Covered California Agent Agreement to explicitly include Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Forms in the record access, retention, and audits sections. • Exchange/CC shall require CIA attestation to intent to fully comply with the requirements of this policy, to be collected during annual web-based training conducted by Covered California University through its Learning Management System (LMS).

	Responsibilities of Certified Insurance Agents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certified Insurance Agents (CIAs) shall obtain a Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Form from each consumer who purchases a Health Care Sharing Ministry product. • CIAs shall maintain Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Forms for up to ten years. • CIAs shall make their Consumer Acknowledgement and Full Disclosure Forms available to Exchange/CC upon reasonable request. • CIAs shall annually attest to their intent to comply with this policy of Exchange/CC when completing their web-based training.
QUESTIONS	If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact [TBD]

DRAFT