

COVERED CALIFORNIA

Media Clips

COVERED CALIFORNIA BOARD CLIPS

Apr. 8, 2022 – May 10, 2022

Since our last board meeting, recent media coverage includes:

- How inflation is hitting Californians and where Covered California fits in.
- Op-ed by Covered California’s Dr. Alice Hm Chen and Julia Logan on the importance of proper Primary Care.
- Coverage of Covered California’s ongoing Special Enrollment Period.
- Fallout from fixing the family glitch.
- What will happen if the American Rescue Plan subsidies aren’t extended?

PRINT

Articles of Significance

Low-Income Californians Hit Hardest by Inflation, L.A. Progressive, April 14, 2022

4 ACA Marketplaces Take Action to Advance Health Equity,
Healthpayer Intelligence,..... April 21, 2022

New Business Owner is Happy and Healthy During Great Resignation,
Observer Group of Newspapers Southern California, April 26, 2022

On the wellness curve, focus on primary health care will put California ahead,
CALMatters, April 29, 2022

Related:

HealthLeaders Media

This proposal could solve health insurance problem for part-time community college faculty, CALMatters,.....May 2, 2022

California Opens Medicaid to Older Unauthorized Immigrants,
Kaiser Health News,.....May 2, 2022

Affordable Care Act subsidy cliff hits Southern states hardest,
Axios, April 8, 2022

Biden still hasn't banned the short-term health plans he called 'junk',
Washington Post, April 14, 2022

New Studies Highlight Impact Of Fixing The Family Glitch,
Health Affairs, April 20,, 2022

[Republicans Have Stopped Trying to Kill Obamacare. Here's What They're Planning
Instead.](#), Politico, April 26, 2022

First on CNN: A record 35 million-plus Americans have Affordable Care Act coverage -- but the gains may not last long, CNN, April 29, 2022

High-Deductible Health Plans Make Income Inequality Worse,
Capital & Main, May 5, 2022